

Er. Manoo Singh is professionally a known Civil Engineer specialized in the field of Geotechnical Engineering and Concrete Technology.

He has done his Graduation in Civil Engineering from AKTU Lucknow in 2018 and is into his Masters in the Field of Geotechnical Engineering from Integral University, Lucknow since 2025.

He is currently working as Deputy Technical Manager, at Arun Soil Lab Private Limited, Lucknow – a well renowned Geotechnical and Building Material Consultancy with Pan India Serviceability.

He has more than Seven years of professional experience in Building Materials Testing, Concrete Mix Design, Quality Control where he is responsible for concrete mix design development, quality assurance, laboratory management, material testing, technical reporting, and ensuring compliance with relevant latest Indian & International Standards and project specifications.

Besides this he has wide expertise in Geotechnical Engineering Consultancy with Pan India working.

He is also a active member of various Engineering Professional Societies of India with Life Membership of The Indian Concrete Institute (ICI), reflecting his commitment to continuous professional development and excellence in concrete technology and construction practices.